

Dawn Ramu Bio

Fashion designer Dawn Ramu is the epitome of modern style. She has created a signature look centered on romance and femininity. Her pieces are made with the highest quality fabrics that define exclusive luxury. Inspiration for Dawn's collection comes from her worldly travels, everyday muses and classic vintage style.

Dawn is known for creating unique pieces that make a strong statement of chic sophistication. Although her designs are classic, she infuses modern cuts and fabrics to create a contemporary take on legendary style. Although her designs are simple, small details bring the garments to life, creating a fresh image and context of "being".

Dawn's experience as a wardrobe stylist has provided her with the skills to create a total fashion story for the wearer of her collection. Her use of rich colors and careful draping are what help to define her distinguished style. Dawn has built a lasting reputation for well draped, timeless, garments; that are both traditional and elegant.

Although educated in rhetoric and legal studies at Berkeley, fashion design has always been Dawn's first love. Her passion as a designer is evident in the care that she puts into every piece that she designs with the refined woman in mind. Many of her dresses are constructed out of silk, silk chiffon and silk knits that produce a delicate and luxurious look and feel.

Dawn designs her pieces specifically for the modern, sophisticated young woman who wants to create trends rather than follow them. Dawn's dresses are perfected from beginning to end and are purposefully created to fill the void of stylish sophistication in every woman's wardrobe.
